

KISWIRE GROUP ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

We shall conserve/preserve environment and ecosystem by establishing effective environment management system and by enhancing ability to handle the environmental risks.

1. Establishment of Environmental Management System

As a global company, we shall comply with local environmental laws in each countries, and in accordance, establish and conform to 'Environment Management Regulations'.

Also, by establishing effective environment management system, we will evaluate impacts and risk of business activities on environment, and we shall analyze and manage the results of environmental management that benefits and issues will be shared with various interested parties in order to carry out environmental protection activities.

We shall share the principle of environment protection as a corporate social responsibility with our business partners, and we shall support them to comply with relevant laws and regulations.

2. Measures on Climate Change

In order to minimize emission of greenhouse gases, regular reporting and monitoring system shall be established, and we shall continuously develop innovative low-carbon technologies that would fundamentally reduce carbon emission that is generated during business activities.

3. Protection of Environment and Ecosystem

We shall implement optimized technologies for preventing and minimizing environmental pollution and impacts, and we shall endeavor to restore ecosystem and to preserve biological diversity.